

CAMP LIGHTBULB SUMMER 2018

Our Camp Lightbulb family grows stronger and larger every year.

The theme for this year's Provincetown Summer Camp was True North and in this book our campers describe what that means to them. We captured their names and thoughts on sticky notes, and we proudly present our camper "line-up."

To me True North is an internal compass that guides me and what we do at Camp Lightbulb - an orientation point that points to a place to call home, find happiness, to be safe and to build inner strength.

THANKS, PUCK

CAMPERS,

Boy did we have fun this summer. Drag shows, Logan's laugh, Dungeons & Dragons, Cards Against Humanity, Erin's fight with the Atlantic Ocean, Make-up sessions, "Repeat after me" campfire songs, late night conversations and the Funk Bus. The laughter and smiles were in full force.

However, Camp isn't always a barrel of laughs, flying unicorns and endless smiles. Sometimes it can be really hard by forcing you to push yourself out of your comfort zone, share space and learn some new things about yourself. You have ask and answer difficult questions and challenge yourself to engage versus falling back on good-old-familiar avoidance strategies, like being glued to your phone.

It is okay that Camp can be anxiety producing because it's a safe and supportive environment. I got to spend the week witnessing campers selflessly and effortlessly offer up compassion to one another, actions that reinforced our safe space.

Here are just a few ways I saw campers looking out for one another:

"Are you ok?"

Hugs

High-fives

"How can I help?"

Snapping in agreement
Offering the tissue box
"Can you check on this camper, I think they are struggling?"
Asking others to join-in.

Camp Lightbulb is more than just a LGBTQ camp, it is a camp where compassion runs wild and because of that a strong and healthy family is formed with compassion at its core.

Remember your true north is "your fixed point in a spinning world." Believing in and following it will lead you down some amazing journeys. As your "mom," I challenge you to take the compassion felt within the walls of our safe home and carry it with you while guided by your "true north." Take the compassion shown to you by your CL family and reshape it into compassion for others outside of our family. Those times when it's really hard to show compassion for someone, is when we need to do it the most.

I have been so lucky to be the CL "mom" for five years. Having over 100 teenagers and young adults can be exhausting. In my moments of uncertainty, discouragement and confusion, I think of my CL family and I know everything will be okay.

And remember, "Keep picking up after yourself!"

LOVE, MOM.

BRETT

gay • empathetic • sleepy • artistic

CABES

CADEN

makeup • music • the ocean • wind • friends that have unconditional love • the gay community • gold

CAT

schedules can become monotonous • sometimes it's good to unplug from reality

CELESTE

My true north is using a dialectical blend of logical school of thought and emotion in the form of Kantian ethics. This means that, in the event of feeling lost, the process by which I regain control is by using rigorous logic to find the best possible action, while remembering people are ends, not means, and all deserve respect and kindness.

CHARLIE

art • music • friends • family

DANIEL

I am strong and independent • I am my own person • I am a powerful queer/trans person • I can make a difference

DAY

funny • queer • childish • artistic • musical • flexible • playful • friendly

DIANA

metal music • loving

DIEGO

creative • loving • caring • friendly • charming

DYLAN D.

shy • bi • trans guy

DYLAN M.

creative • funny • outgoing

ELLIOTT

My true north is finding peace within others and myself.

ERIN

I am woman! I am strength! I am love! I am lesbian!

JACK

independence • remembering that it's going to be okay • make goofs and be joyful

JENTRY

myself • happy • true • funny • trusting

JET

nonbinary and trans community • art!!! • affection

JOSH

who I am • who I love!

JULIAN

me

LAKEbeing honest and happy

LAUREN

the music I listen to • my dedication to making art

LELA

being LGBT • friendship • art and music

LOGAN

my skin • my shade • my laughter

MASON

trans community • empathy

MORGAN

goofy • loving • proud

NICOLAS

My true north is true friendships and dialogue across differences.

NOAH

I am we.

REMY

my friends • the people that love me

ROGER

the music I listen to, and the music I make • my philosophy • my values • cats

RONAN

intuition • open-mindedness • true to self • humor

TATE

intelligence • world building (Dungeons and Dragons) • creativity • Dragon Age • Dungeons and Dragons

YOYO

sense of humor • kindness • my laugh • my loyalty

ZION

my creativity • my sexuality

PARENT LETTERS

"I cannot thank you enough for the amazing time C had at camp. They came home with a smile I haven't seen in so long. The love you showed has truly helped C show their sweet, loving side with confidence. Thank you for helping them to feel really good about themselves. They can't wait for next year!" - Parent

"I just wanted to send a quick note of appreciation for the amazing job you all do for our kids. C has grown so much in confidence, self-awareness, trust and understanding in this past week. The change is even visible. Words cannot adequately express the feeling as a parent." - Parent

"I just want to take a moment to thank you for what you do. C had an amazing time at CLB last week. They say that it was one of the most positive experiences of their life! I greatly appreciate the work that you do!" - Parent

"I just wanted to send my thanks to everyone at Camp Lightbulb for creating such an AMAZING experience on the Cape last week. My son, C, has been raving about camp ever since I picked him up on Saturday. He's been glued to the Facebook group chat that the kids set up and is looking forward to playing D&D online with his new friends. We were a bit apprehensive about camp because it was his first time away from home for a whole week. He had a bad camp experience at another camp (non-LGBT) a couple of summers ago and was hesitant to try again. You created such a loving, supportive and fun atmosphere that he didn't want to leave. He can't wait for next year!" - Parent

"C came home from camp absolutely BEAMING this year - so glad to see how she has progressed and become more confident. Camps and friends really help her, of course having great counselors and familiarity with repeat staff is a huge comfort for her as well. Your team does wonderful things and it's nice to watch how CL is growing. Again, thank you for all you do and plan!" - Parent

THANK YOU.

Home Team Puck Markham, McKenna Palmer, Rob Williams

Counselors Jay Baldwin, Jonathan Damron, Michael Farris, Finn Lanning, Patti Lonergan, Shaggy Stearns

Board Gina Bettinsoli, Puck Markham, Richard Klein, Linda Rohler

Family & Friends
Jane Barber, Emily Beebe, John Choly, Candy Collins, Mark
Cortale, David Cox, Tony Fucillo, Ken Lonergan, Sue Roderick, Abbey Sager, Patrick Santos, Courtney & Zoe Sullivan, Gail
Vasques, Provincetown Town Hall, Truro Hostel

Season Sponsor $10,000+ Linda Rohler, Pfizer Inc.

Platinum Sponsor $5,000 Rob Saltzman

Gold Sponsor $2,500 Anonymous (2x), Hans Eijmberts & Wiebe Tinga, Craig Smith, Pathways for Change

Silver Sponsor $1,000

Dina Bettinsoli, Robert Heller, Jack Hornor, David Spring & Jean Silva, Dawn Sword, Equality Fund, Fidelity Investments, FLAG Flag Football, FMC Ice Sports, National Gay Pilots Assn., Provincetown United Methodist Church, Wayside Youth & Family Support, White Porch Inn

Bronze Sponsor $500 Steve Cook & Alan McKinnon, Bill Docker & Tom Stearns, Bill Gannon, Gail Hardenbergh, Linda Peters, Scott Taber, St. Mary's of the Harbor

Friend Sponsor $250 Scott Allegretti, Cass Benson, Joe De Martino, Joseph Drew, Michael Ekman, Stanwood Everett, Kim Knowles, Benchmark Inn, Stop & Shop

In Kind Boston Harbor Cruises, Miss Richfield, Provincetown Monument, Street Eatz

> Media Provincetown Magazine, Ptownie

